CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

Room At The Top.

Never you mind the crowd, lad,
Or fancy your life won't tell;
The work is the work, for a' that,
To him that doeth it well.
Fancy the world a hill, lad;
Look where the millions stop;
You'll find the crowd at the base lad;
There's always room at the top.

Courage and faith and patience,
There's peace in the old world yet;
The better the chance you stand, lad,
The further along you get.
Keep your eye on the goal, lad,
Never despair or drop;
Be sure that your path leads upward;
There's always room at the top.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I have not written for a long time I thought I would try to write. I like to read the Children's Column. I was to the G. B. church to day with my cousin. Mamma and Carley did not go. Papa is in Waterloo, Iowa, pleading with sinners to except Christ and his kingdom. I see that the children are becoming negligent in writing. I would like to see a letter from some of my young friends in Indiana. I would like to have went to the Milford dedication. So I must close for this time. Good by Editor.

ESSIE E. MALLOTT.

DEAR CHILDREN: The end of the year is coming on fast, and in a few weeks Christmas and New Years will be here again. We venture to think that you are nearly all going to school now, after a busy summer and fall at work and at play. As you are again giving your minds to the study of Spelling, Reading, Writing, Geography, Arithmetic and Grammar, it will be in your line of work to write little letters for the Children's Department. Through the summer many of you were too busy to write; but now the evenings are long, and you have plenty of spare time, and it will be handy to you to write.

We hope you have all enjoyed your labors through the summer, and that you will now take hold of your studies with vigor and make commendable progress. We are interested in seeing young people make advancement in their studies, and especially the young readers of the EVANGELIST.

Now, dear children, let us hear from you at once. Get down your pens and ink and give us such a storm of letters that we will be astonished and not know what to do first.

We want to know how your Sabbath school prospered during the summer, what good things you have been doing, whether you have been working for yourself some by raising a patch of something; whether you have raised any chickens, ducks, birds, pigs, calves or colts that you call your own; or whether you was helping your father in the store, or in the field; or your mother to wash, iron, get dinner, milk, weed in the garden, whip carpet, clean the house, or whether you have been working away from home.

Now and then one of our dear children decides to come to Jesus. It may be that during the summer some of you have decided to be a follower of Jesus, and do what he loves to see children do. If you have we shall be ever so much pleased to have you write how you get along in the service of Jesus. Your experience would do us much good, and all the other readers of this page would enjoy it too. And then the many good mothers who read these columns would be delighted to hear that little girls and boys are serving Jesus and doing good. Little children can go to heaven just like older people, and when they get old enough to read and write, they know good from evil, and then it makes the angels glad to see them come and profess their Master, as it also does the good, kind mothers who love little children so.

You will see that Essie Mallott has sent us a nice letter. This will do for the first one of what we will call the winter campaign of letter writing. This will last until spring. Now who will hurry and send in the next one?

YOUR EDITOR.

A Child's Idea of God.

A mother was trying to impress upon her little boy, not yet three years old, the love shown him by the Great Father, to whom his prayers were said. When she finished, she asked, "Do you not love him?" "Yes," said the child, "when he comes I'll get yite up in his lap and kiss him." A little startled, the mother thought that something more was needed for the lesson, and went on to tell him that though invisible, God was everywhere at work for our good—in the air, in the trees, bringing blossoms and fruit, and beneath the earth. The next morning she put on his wraps and let him out into the yard for his morning airing. It was early Spring, and the snow was very soft on the crocus bed beside the door. He had been gone but a moment, when he rushed back in great excitement. "Mamma, mamma,' he cried. "God has made a f'ower." "Has he?" said the mother. "Yes, yes; it came up yeal c'ean out of the dirt."

The Boy Martyrs.

A Free Church of Scotland paper says: "Not long ago in Nyanza, in Africa, three lads suffered martyrdom. They were bound alive to a scaffolding under which a fire was made, and they were slowly roasted to death. Their persecutors taunted them, bidding them to pray to Isa Mayisa (Jesus Christ) and see if he would rescue them. The lads clung to their faith, singing their hymns in the fire One of their tormentors was so impressed by their Christian fortitude that he has determined to become a Christian also."

YODER & CURRY,

LAND, LOAN & INSURANCE AGENTS,

Correspondence in English and German.

Lockwood, Dade County., Mo.

The lands we have for sale are located in a country that, for a combination of those natural resources which add to the pleasure and comfort of man, cannot be excelled, if equalled, by any other locality on this Continent. We refer to the salubrity and healthfulness of its climate, the productiveness of its soil, the profuseness and variety of its agricultural products, and the intelligence, morality and good character of its citizens. Comparing its present condition with its possibilities, this country although no longer on the confines of civilization, is yet in its infancy; and investments made in farms now will, eventually, yield a large percentage of gain in value while the country grows into the magnificent proportions destined for it by the great Architect of its natural resources.

We subjoin a partial list of the farms we have to sell, and we will take pleasure in answering any questions pertaining more particularly to the inducements we have to offer to parties desiring to locate in the great and growing West.

AGENTS WANTED for the MISSOURI STEAM Washer

Active, honest persons all over the county, with or without team.

JOHN C. EVANS, Stoutland, Mo., writes: "I stand up and affirm that a Washer saves more hard labor and money in a large family than any Reaper and Mower that ever was put on any farm with less than 100 acres in cultivation. If you will put up any instrument that will take as much labor off of men as this Washer takes off the women, and save as much money as it does and cost no more, I could sell one at every house, if they had to take the feathers from under their wife and babies to pay for it."

JOHN R. BODLE, JR., jeweler, Sumas, Ill., writes: "You ask what I think of the Washer ought last summer. Yet. It is the best machine ever invented by man. 24. We have just as good dinners on Monday as on any other day. 25. If you run short, you can not buy ours for gold."

I will ship a sample to those desiring an agency on a week's trial on liberal terms. A thousand per cent the best washer in the world for saving labor, clothes and soap. Pays capable agents big money. Write for particulars.
